Like clouds of dust shaped by the wind, in Black people a new sense of awareness begins. Aware of a once hidden culture, a hidden identity, and a need to recover our stolen treasure of life.

There is a strong need for us to gather as one united front. To maintain the possession we have—our art, our music, our way of life, the backbone of our civilization.

UNITY

HAIR

THROUGH BLACK

UNITE

Gangs fighting gangs
Blacks killing blacks
And laughter rings in my ears,
White laughter.

Struggling for freedom
While struggling against each other.
Dissenting against the establishment
While dissenting among ourselves.
Talking about poverty
While living in an illusion.

So unite
and fight together
Unite
and gain your freedom
Unite
and hear the silence.

1970

The night after our darkest day
The world was summoned because
The Man had something to say.
When He appeared to us
A chill came over our souls.

Someone asked why are you crying?
He cast his faith on them and replied,
That place is cruel and I'm tired of trying.
The last of my three
Today was wiped out, you see.
I gave them enormous strength and power
To build a better society.

Now I must rest.
I must regain my sense of mind.
His tears were flowing freely now,
Like the great seas He created.

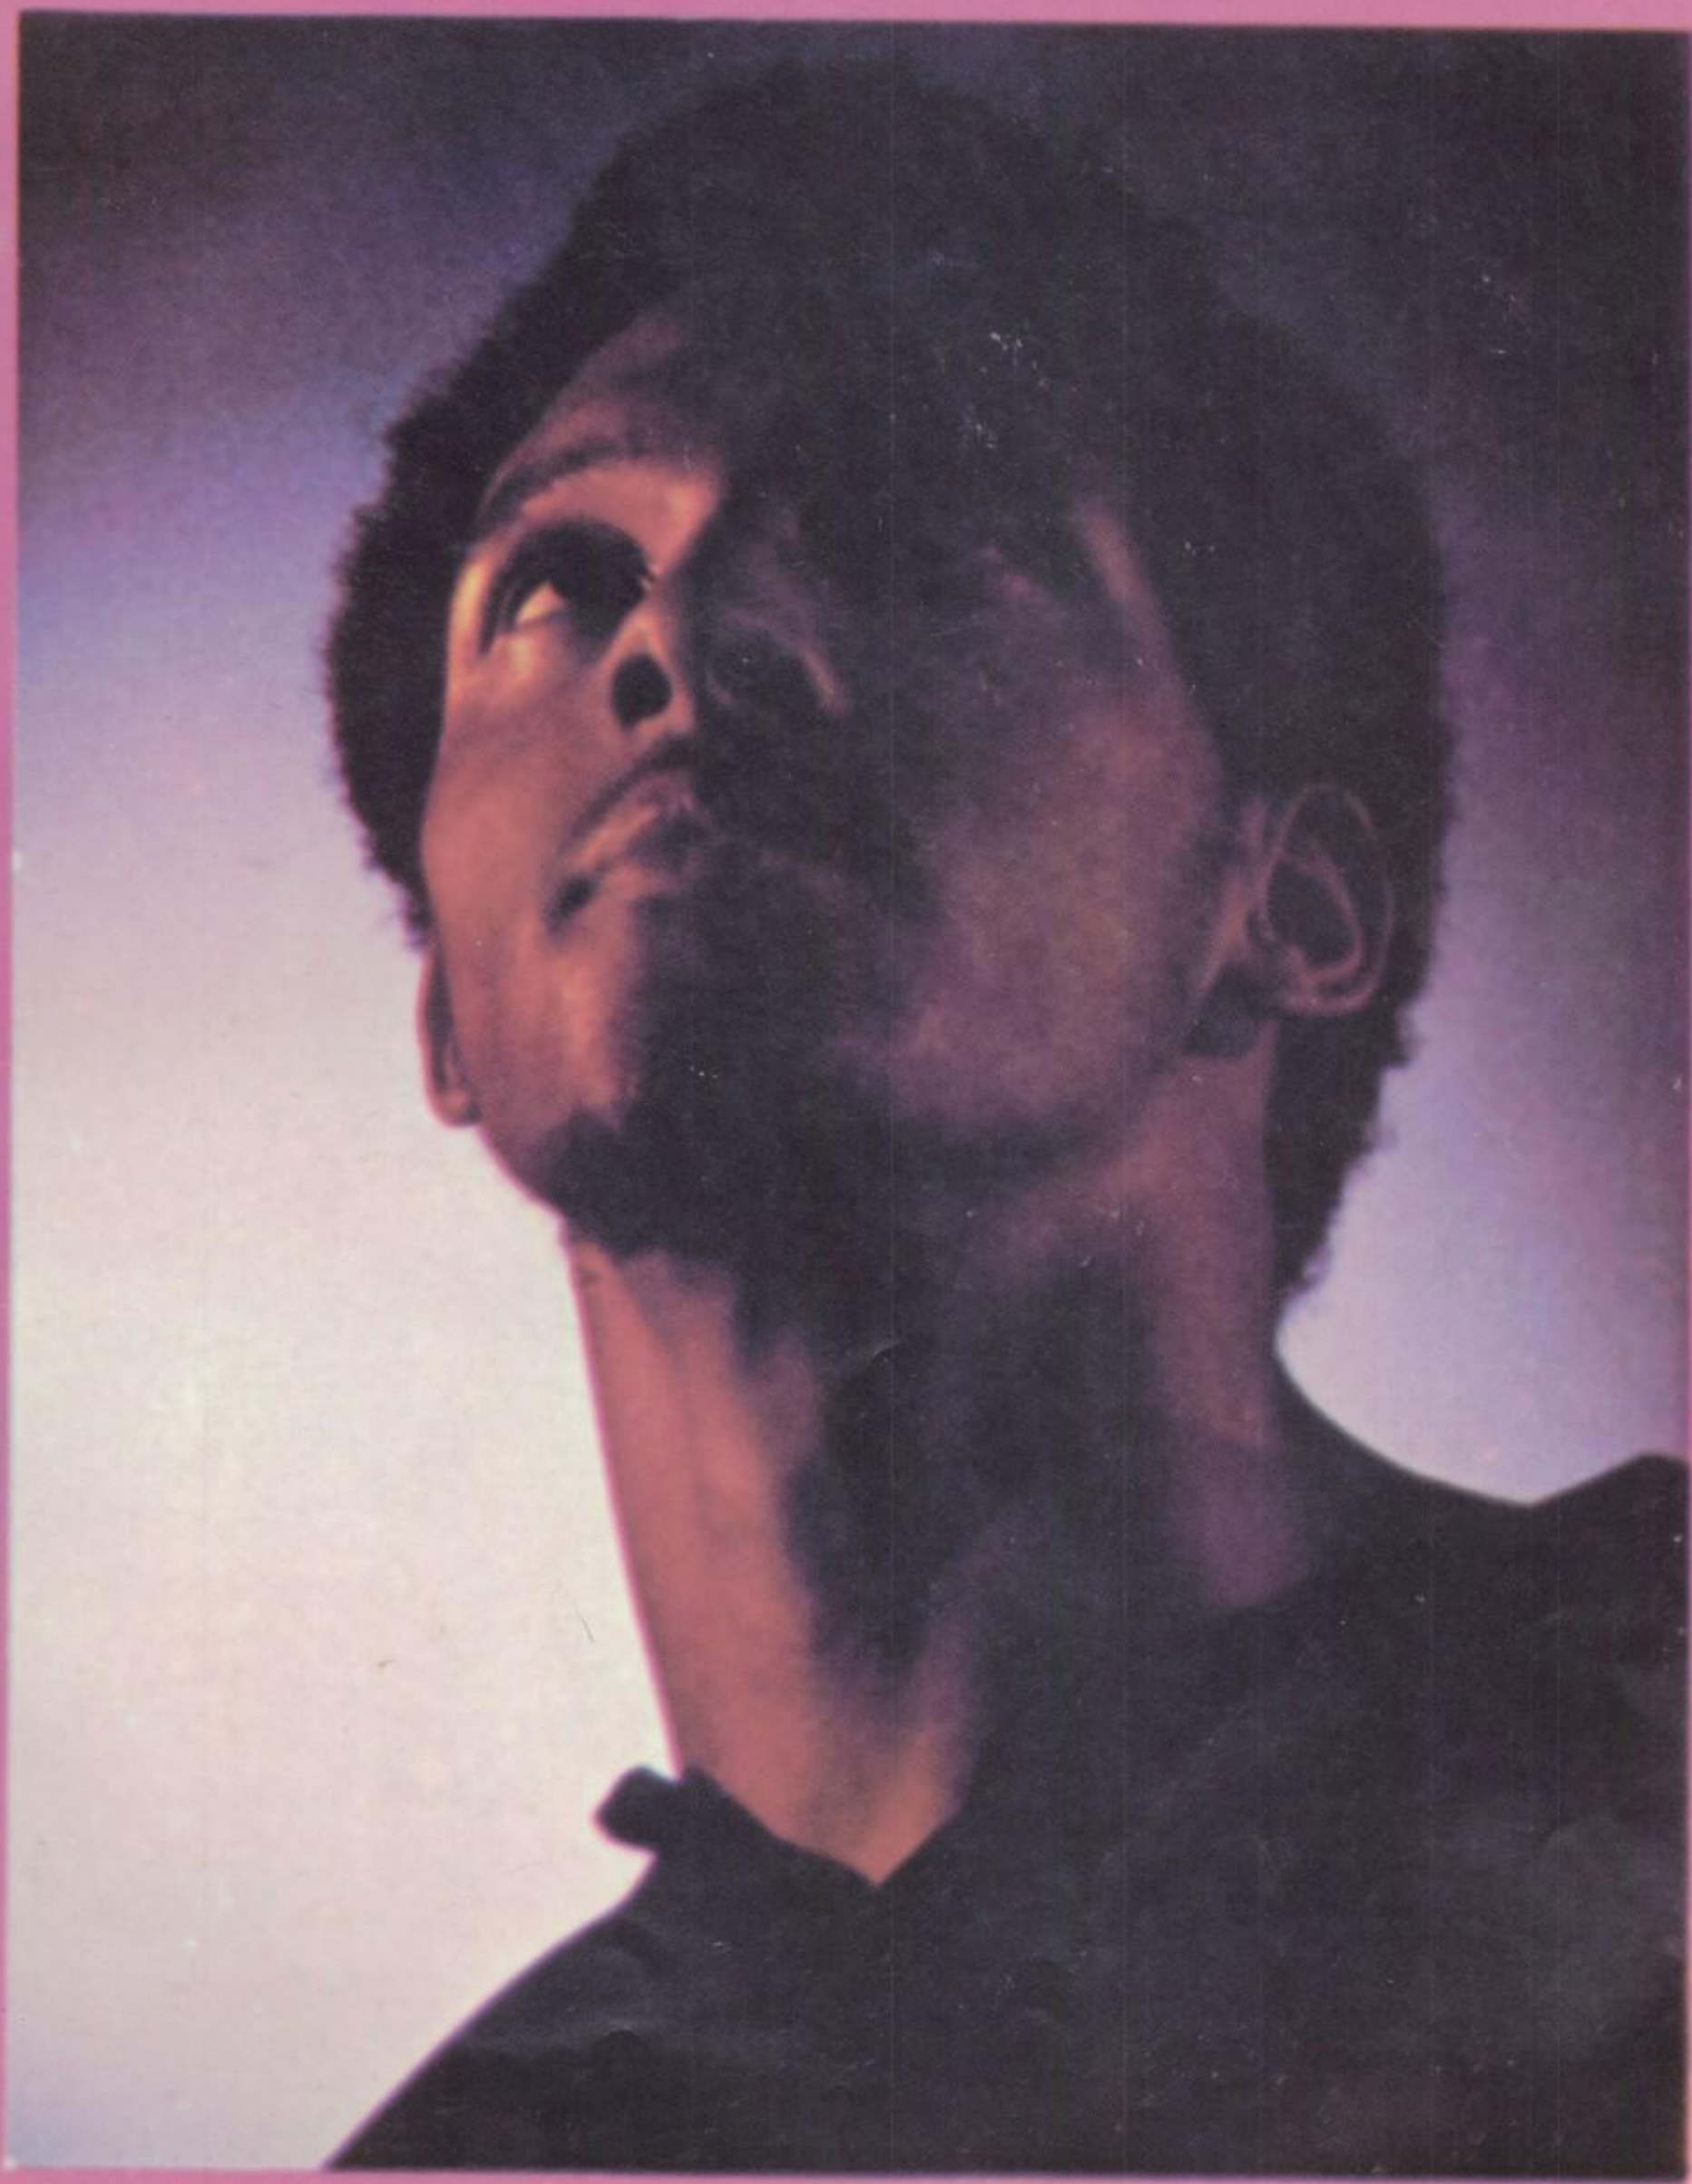

The Man was scorned and covered with scars.
Maybe I'll migrate man to Mars.
His spirit began to fade
And as it did his last words were

I'll never again stir my recipe
To create one King or two Kennedys.
That's all we earthlings remember
For our alarms struck seven.
We all realized that we had Descended to earth
From heaven.

Anthony Blackwell

I hear the distant beating
Of a drum in the abyss of my mind.
Above ominous white clouds
I see sparkling sky.
Over the sepulcher of our society
Flows the fragrant breezes of a faraway land.

I know Africa,
In my soul
Where it will live forever.

I feel the rich black soil
Beneath my feet.
I worship the wind, the sun, the moon, and the waters
For I know they are
The vassals of the lord.
I love the snow covered mountains
And the torrid jungles beneath them.

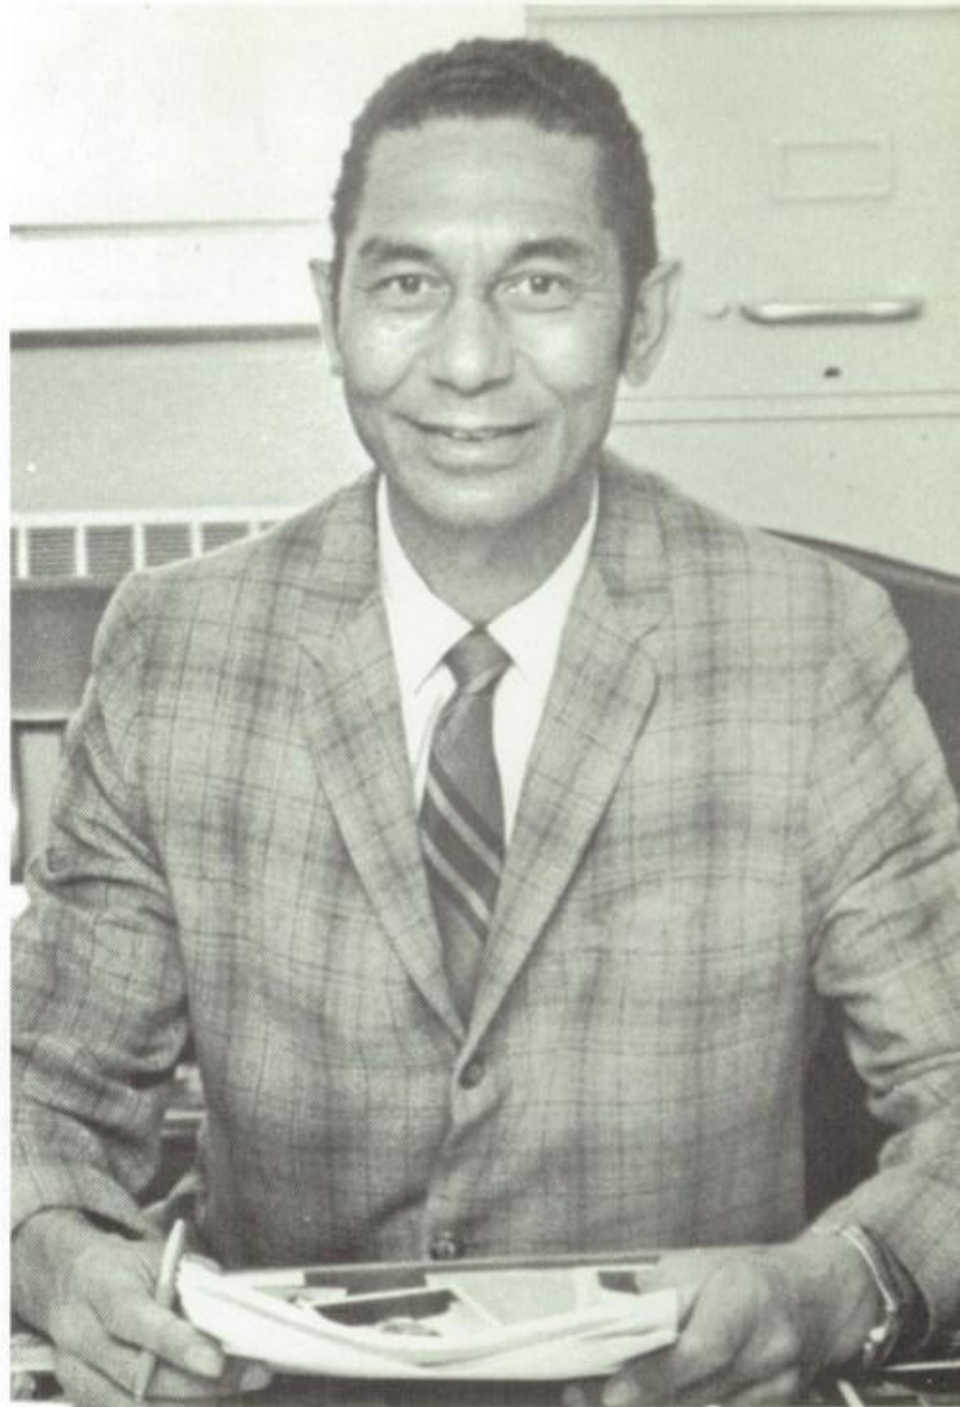

I remember this land I've never seen.
I remember this land I'll never see.

The Harlan Falcons, in spite of their won 3, lost 4 record, gave us many thrills. Our squad had numerous standouts, including Michael Burroughs, Phillip McPherson, Winston House, Michael Allison, Melvin Barrows, and Herbert Smith. Outstanding defensively were Quinace Pollard, Samuel Wilson, Edward Binns, Edward Dace, Maurice Denny, Bill Norwood, and Armond Lee. Coach Sherman Howard, assistant coach Larry Blackful, and the team promise a more fruitful season next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Another glorious season composed by our mighty thinclads, consisting of Jerome Brown, Darryl Veazy, Raymond Price, Hercules Richardson, Dwayne Hannah, Michael Davis, and Silas Fuller defeated the teams of Englewood, Phillips, Lindbloom, Leo, Hales, and many others. Our thinclads exhibited courage and desire throughout their season. In the City-Cross-Country Meet, the Varsity finished in third place, and the Frosh-Soph placed fourth. Once again we proved to the other teams in the league that we will always be a major threat to capture honors.

Fred Hampton

Tall, muscular, powerful looking huge fro midnight tints determined mind
different attitude,
a Young Black Man who came from the mountain top down here into the valley to shout here, there, and everywhere
I AM A REVOLUTIONARY! I AM A REVOLUTIONARY!

I know every person believes in longevity
on earth
but as you rise
to spur the thoughts of people and stir emotions of a set pattern and become more powerful and demanding you aren't concerned with what might happen.
People, this was Fred Hampton only twenty-one so young so beautiful so gifted and so black.

Now from this beautiful peaceful mountaineous land
from which he rose
The mighty bells ring out a cold-chilling Tune, for another native son has fallen down to rest
and they know
they will never see his image
again.

Friday's Public League basketball championship game was expected to be decided on the boards, but a pair of mid-gets from Harlan, 5-6 Henry Thomas and 5-11 junior Gilbert Jordan, stole the show.

Basketball

Our Mighty Hoopsters gave us many thrills and chills of exciting first class Basketball. By utilizing the fast break, sharp passing and excellent team spirit they composed a dynamic 22-5 season. Hank Thomas, Earl Dorsey, Ed Dace, Gil Jordan, Tim Bryant, Dennis Hampton, Steven Sharpe, Donald Jobe, Anthony Burrage, and Melvin Barrow sparkled our glorious team attack. The Falcons defeated DuSable for the City Championship, 72-63. We then battled Aurora East in the Super-Sectional but we were edged out 68-61. The Falcons then defeated the Catholic League Champions, Hales, 72-66 in the annual All-City Game contested at Chicago Stadium.
